

DRAYTON MANOR HIGH SCHOOL

YEAR 10 & 11 COURSES

Subject	Religious Education (compulsory delivered through carousel)
Course Level	Ealing Agreed Syllabus for RE Key Stage 4
Examining Body	Non-examinable

What will I be studying?

Through a series of extended case studies, students will explore ethical, philosophical and religious responses to the following:

1. Religion & relationships
2. Women in religion
3. Standing up to hate
4. Religious attitudes to poverty
5. Suffering and Evil

What skills will I develop?

- An enquiring approach to the study of religion and human experience
- An understanding of how to put key concepts into religious and secular contexts.
- An ability to communicate, reflect on and evaluate values, opinions and attitudes to key issues.
- The ability to apply beliefs and values (secular & religious) to real life situations.

How will the course be structured?

The course will be delivered within a carousel system, alongside IT and CCW

Year 10

- Religion & Relationships
- Women in religion

Year 11

- Standing up to hate
- Religious attitudes to poverty

How will I be assessed?

The course will be assessed internally, using existing Key Stage 4 criteria – with an emphasis on evaluative responses (AO2)

Further information can be obtained by referring to the Ealing Agreed Syllabus for Religious Education, which is available online.

There is no Controlled Assessment or Coursework for this Religious Education course

If you have any further questions about taking this course, who should you speak to?

1. Your RE Teacher
2. Head of Religious Education – Mr Burchell